 TRAVEL SCIENCE
A black and white photograph of a Travel Science portable refrigerator. The refrigerator is a large, rectangular unit with a dark grey body and a white top. It has a handle on the left side and a vented area on the right. The unit is sitting on a grassy field. In the background, there is a folding camp chair and a table with various items on it, including what looks like a lantern and some food. The scene is outdoors, likely at a campsite, with trees and foliage in the background. The lighting suggests it might be late afternoon or early morning, with a warm glow. The overall composition is a product shot for an advertisement.
